History of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) was founded in 1833 in Paris, France, by a group of young college students, including the renowned Frédéric Ozanam. Their mission was to provide assistance to the poor and marginalized members of society. Over the years, the society has expanded globally, reaching thousands of communities, including Mesa, Arizona.

The Mesa chapter was established to address local needs, offering various services such as food assistance, housing support, and financial aid to families in crisis. The thrift store emerged as a crucial component of this outreach, providing a means to generate funds while offering low-cost goods to the community.
