According to the Christian faith, every believer possesses at least one spiritual gift, which enables them to fulfill their God-given purpose.

The Biblical Foundation of Spiritual Gifts

The concept of spiritual gifts is rooted in several passages of the Bible, primarily in the New Testament. Key scriptures include:

- 1 Corinthians 12: This chapter details various spiritual gifts, emphasizing the diversity of gifts and the importance of each member of the body of Christ.
- Romans 12: This passage outlines different gifts, such as prophecy, service, teaching, and mercy, and encourages believers to use their gifts in harmony with one another.
- Ephesians 4: This chapter highlights the gifts given to the church, including apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers, to equip believers for ministry.
