- Create a Clue Board: Use a whiteboard or a piece of paper to lay out all the clues you've gathered. Categorize them based on suspects, motives, and evidence.
- Take Notes: Jot down important information as you progress. This helps you keep track of details that might seem insignificant at first glance.

2. Analyze Each Suspect

Murder puzzles often incorporate red herrings and misleading information. To combat this, consider the following:

- Question Everything: Don't take information at face value. Ask yourself why a particular clue or detail is presented and how it fits into the overall story.
