Examples of Very Short Stories for Kids

Here are a few examples of very short stories that are perfect for kids. These stories are simple yet convey profound messages.

The Lion and the Mouse

Once upon a time, a mighty lion lay asleep in the forest. A little mouse accidentally ran over the lion's nose, waking him up. The lion was furious and was about to eat the mouse. The mouse pleaded for mercy, saying, "Please let me go, and one day I will help you." The lion laughed but decided to let the mouse go. Later, the lion got caught in a hunter's net. Hearing the lion's roars, the mouse rushed to help. He gnawed through the ropes, freeing the lion.

Moral: Even the smallest creature can be of help.

The Tortoise and the Hare

In a forest, a tortoise and a hare decided to race. The hare, confident in his speed, quickly dashed ahead while the tortoise moved slowly but steadily. The hare, seeing he was far ahead, took a nap. Meanwhile, the tortoise kept going and eventually crossed the finish line first. The hare woke up too late and realized he had lost.

Moral: Slow and steady wins the race.

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

A shepherd boy was bored while watching his sheep. To entertain himself, he shouted, "Wolf! Wolf!" The villagers rushed to help, only to find that there was no wolf. The boy laughed at how easy it was to fool them. Later, a wolf actually appeared. The boy shouted for help again, but the villagers thought he was lying and didn't come. The wolf took a sheep, and the boy learned a hard lesson.

Moral: Liars are not believed even when they tell the truth.
