Common Rules for Forming Plurals

Understanding the basic rules for forming plurals is crucial when working with worksheets. Here are some essential rules:

1. Regular Plural Formation

- Add -s: Most nouns simply require adding -s to form the plural (e.g., cat → cats, book → books).
- Add -es: For nouns ending in -s, -sh, -ch, -x, or -z, add -es (e.g., bus → buses, box → boxes).
- Change -y to -ies: If a noun ends in a consonant followed by -y, change -y to -ies (e.g., baby → babies, puppy → puppies). If it ends in a vowel followed by -y, just add -s (e.g., boy → boys).
- Change -f or -fe to -ves: Some nouns change -f or -fe to -ves (e.g., leaf → leaves, wolf → wolves).

2. Irregular Plural Forms

Certain nouns do not follow standard rules and have irregular plural forms. These include:

- Child → Children
- Woman → Women
- Man → Men
- Mouse → Mice
- Goose → Geese

3. Nouns that Remain the Same

Some nouns have the same form in both singular and plural, such as:

- Sheep
- Deer
- Fish
