Core Beliefs and Teachings

The World Mission Society Church of God Riverside adheres to distinctive beliefs that differentiate it from many other Christian denominations. Central to its doctrine is the belief in God the Father and God the Mother, based on biblical scriptures interpreted by the church's founder. These teachings emphasize salvation through faith in both divine figures and the importance of observing biblical festivals and commandments. The church also stresses the fulfillment of prophecy and the restoration of the early church's true teachings.

God the Mother and God the Father

A unique aspect of the World Mission Society Church of God Riverside's theology is the belief in God the Mother alongside God the Father. This belief is grounded in scriptures such as Galatians 4:26 and Revelation 22:17, which the church interprets as references to a heavenly mother figure who provides spiritual life and salvation. This concept is central to the church's identity and worship practices.

Biblical Observances and Festivals

The church observes several biblical festivals that are often overlooked by mainstream Christian denominations. These include the Passover, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles. Members believe that following these ordinances is vital to receiving God's blessings and fulfilling divine commands.

Salvation and Restoration

The World Mission Society Church of God Riverside teaches that salvation is available through belief in both God the Father and God the Mother and by following biblical laws and commandments. The church views itself as a restoration of the early Christian church, faithfully practicing the teachings that were originally delivered by Jesus Christ and the apostles.
